BE IT RESOLVED, that the Town Board of the Town of Shelter Island hereby directs that a public hearing shall be held on Monday, _____, 2026 at 6 p.m. or thereafter to hear any and all persons either for or against a local law entitled “A Local Law Amending Chapter 8 entitled “Ethics, Code of” of which provides as follows:

Local Law No. __ of 2026

A LOCAL LAW ENTITLED “A Local Law Amending Chapter 8 – Code of Ethics”

BE IT ENACTED by the Town Board of the Town of Shelter Island, as follows:

Section 1. Legislative Intent.

The Town of Shelter Island adopted updated Code of Ethics in 2023, which is implemented through the Town’s Board of Ethics. This legislation reflects the Town Board and Board of Ethics’ commitment to the periodic review of the Code of Ethics to ensure it remains current with applicable laws, guidance, and best practices in municipal governance. Regular evaluation and refinement of the Code promote public confidence in the integrity and accountability of Town officials, employees, and appointed representatives and ensure the ethical framework continues to serve the Town and public interest.

The Board of Ethics reviewed the current Code of Ethics and suggested recommendations to the Town Board for various updates. The Shelter Island Town Board reviewed and revised such recommendations, and wishes to adopt updates that the Town Board believes improve the current Code of Ethics, are in the interest of protecting the Town from unethical activity and providing its employees with clear guidance in performing their duties.

Section 2. Amendment.

The Chapter 8 of the Shelter Island Town Code is hereby amended by deleting the stricken words and adding the underlined words:

ARTICLE I
Standards of Conduct

§ 8-1. Purpose.

~~Officers and employees of the Town of Shelter Island hold their positions to serve and benefit the public, and not for obtaining unwarranted personal or private gain in the exercise and performance of their official powers and duties. The Town recognizes that, in furtherance of this fundamental principle, there is a need for clear and reasonable standards of ethical conduct. Clear standards will also protect ethical public officials and rebut unfair allegations. This Code of Ethics establishes those standards.~~

Town of Shelter Island ("the Town") officers and employees are expected to perform their duties in the best interests of the public. They may, however, encounter situations in which what is best for the Town may be different from their own or a relative’s personal best interest. In such a case, there may be a “conflict of interest.” Such conflicts may seriously undermine public confidence in the Town government.

The purpose of ethics law is to help Town officers and employees avoid conflicts of interest, as well as to disclose and address them when necessary to foster the public’s confidence in the government.

New York State’s General Municipal Law, Article 18 contains provisions prohibiting certain conflicts of interest of municipal officers and employees. That law applies to all Town employees, which includes officers, employees and advisory Board members, paid or unpaid. Town employees should familiarize themselves with Article 18. It is posted in Town Hall and on the Board of Ethics website along with a Comptroller's description of the law.

The Town has adopted its own Code of Ethics as authorized by Article 18. In addition, there is a substantial body of judge-made law ("common law") in New York addressing potential conflicts of interest. While all court decisions are specific to the facts before the court, those decisions create ethical principles that can be applied to other facts and circumstances where a reasonable person would foresee the appearance of impropriety or where conduct could seriously and substantially violate the spirit and intent of ethics regulations, even where no specific statute is violated.

The Town has enacted this Ethics Code in the interest of creating clear and reasonable standards for its officers and employees. It includes the essential requirements of Article 18, and the common law will also be applied, when needed.
