

Town of Shelter Island Open Space & Preserved Lands Map

2020-2021

This map is provided by the Town of Shelter Island for the benefit of our community and visitors. It is the Town's goal to protect the natural heritage of Shelter Island. The Town encourages the respectful public access to these treasured resources of woods, meadows, creeks, ponds, beaches and wildlife.

shelterislandtown.us/maps-and-trails

1. Bunker City County Park – 42 acres
Coastal preserve dominated by red cedars and native grasses and shrubs.
Access: Menhaden Lane (parking by permit only during summer season) and dirt road off Ram Island Drive

2. Cackle Hill Preserve – 17 acres
A dirt road winds through a coastal woods of mixed deciduous trees.
Access: Stearns Point Road

3. Congdon Creek Shorefront Preserve – 1 acre
Waterfront head of Congdon Creek located proximate to Town dock.
Access: East end of Congdon Road

4. Crab Creek Preserve – 12.6 acres
Mix of pine grove, open meadow, and oak and beech woods opens to views of Crab Creek and Shelter Island Sound.
Access: Brander Parkway (by pine grove)

5. Dickerson Pond Park – 8 acres
Scenic, spring-fed pond with loop surrounded by a large field with specimen trees.
Access: Menantic Road

6. Dickerson Creek Overlook – 1.2 acres
Small property with splendid views of Dickerson Creek, West Neck Harbor, and beyond.
Access: Tarkettle Road and Charlie's Lane

7. Foxen Point Tidal Wetlands – 37 acres
Unpaved road leads to beach area on Coecles Harbor and a portion of Congdon's Creek. Private residence at end of road. Do not block active road.
Access: South of Burns Road off N. Cartwright Road

8. Gardiners Creek Preserve – 4 acres
Views of Gardiners Creek, which connects to Dering Harbor.
Access: Quail Hedge Lane (off Rt. 114)

9. Ice Pond Park – 9 acres
Contains a loop around a freshwater pond with a marsh to the south and Chase Creek to the north.
Access: New York Avenue

10. Locust Woods Preserve – 11.13 acres
Path through locust grove.
Access: Manhasset Road

11. Mashomack Preserve – 2,039 acres
Scenic vistas and critical wildlife habitat. Trails open for hiking and birding. Sometimes closed for hunting. No dogs allowed. Visit Nature.org/Mashomack for information and hours.
Access: 79 South Ferry Road - Route 114

12. Mildred Flower Hird Nature Preserve – 30 acres
Oak and beech forest leads to views of Julia Dodd Creek from the western portion.
Access: On the east and west side of Manhasset Road

13. North Menantic Preserve – 6 acres
Path around high grass meadows, shrubs, trees and ravine.
Access: North Menantic Road across from Bowditch Road

14. Old Lima Bean Fields – 14.5 acres
Three-quarter mile trail leads through former lima bean and nursery fields. An existing water pump was used for cultivation purposes.
Access: Corner of Cobbett's Lane and Manhasset Road

15. Old Nursery Woodlands Preserve – 24 acres
Former nursery with multiple loop trails that wind through unique, abandoned plant stock.
Access: Rt. 114 or St. Mary's Road

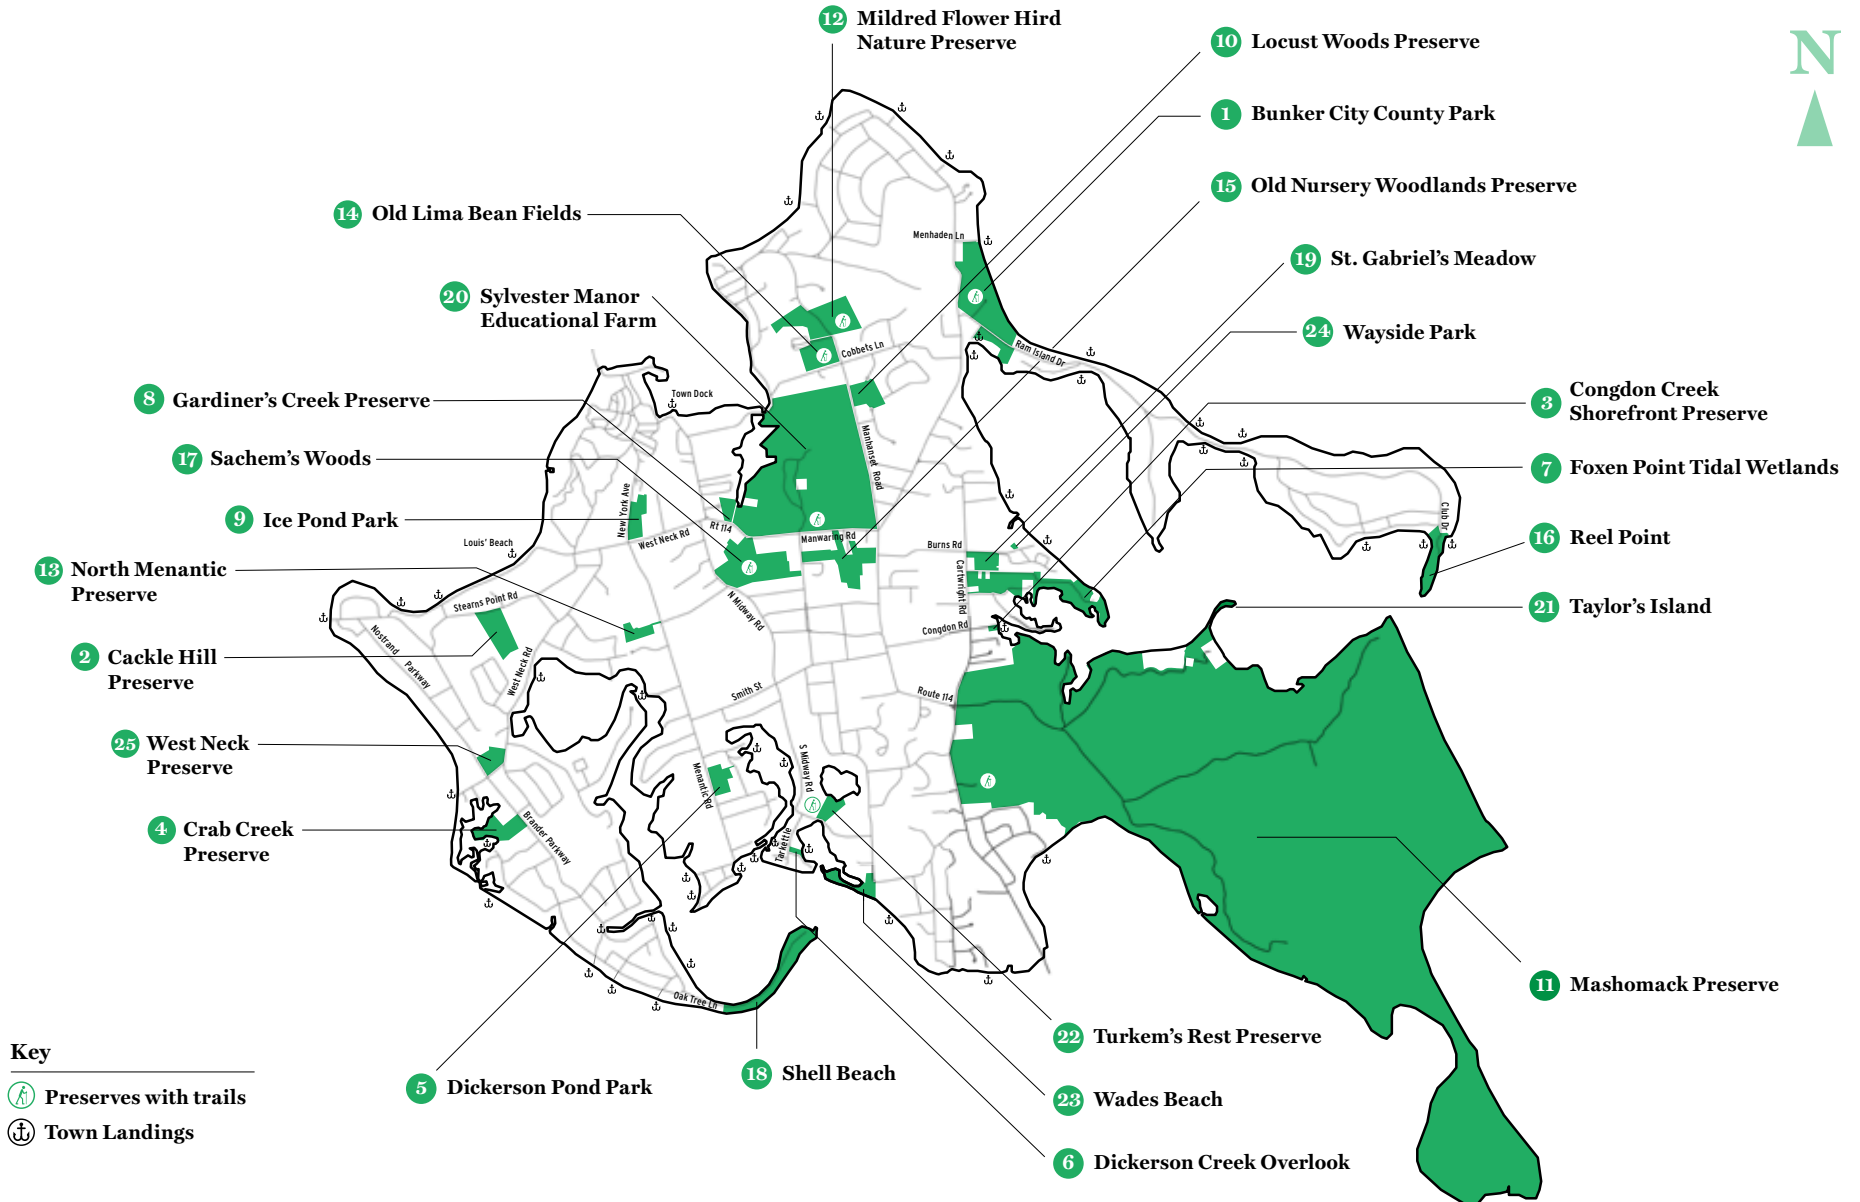

16. Reel Point – 8.5 acres
Fragile sand peninsula and haven for migratory birds and butterflies faces east to Gardiners Bay and west to Coecles Harbor.
Access: End of N. Ram Island Drive

17. Sachem's Woods – 36 acres
Mile-plus loop winds through a forest of oak and beech with a large white pine in the center clearing.
Access: N. Midway Road or Rt. 114

Preserves with trails

18. Shell Beach – 17.1 acres

A half-mile sand peninsula contains numerous microecologies.

Access: Oak Tree Lane (parking by permit only during summer season)

19. St. Gabriel's Meadow – 7.75 acres

Large open field near Coecles Harbor provides pretty vistas.

Access: Burns Road

20. Sylvester Manor Educational Farm – 240 acres

The historic Manor grounds and trails are open April through October. Dogs on leashes permitted. Hiking trail maps inside Rt 114 main entrance. Nitrogen-reducing public restrooms and Farm Stand open May through October.

Visit sylvestermanor.org for information and hours.

Access: 80 North Ferry Road - Route 114

21. Taylor's Island – 1.5 acres

Historic Smith-Taylor Cabin located on a small island in Coecles Harbor, phone 631 749-1603 or email pat@taylorsisland.org for docent tour May – October.

Access: By kayak or shallow draft boat. Town landings on Burns Road and Congdon Road

22. Turkem's Rest Preserve – 6 acres

Trail encompasses tidal wetlands and a loop through an upland woods with views of Fresh Pond.

Access: S. Midway Road

23. Wades Beach - 8.3 acres

Public beach on West Neck Bay, contains restroom and life guard station (parking by permit only during summer season)

Access: South Midway Road

24. Wayside Park – .75 acres

With a water view and picnic table, this small park overlooks Coecles Harbor.

Access: East end of Burns Road

25. West Neck Preserve – 7.7 acres

Path around perimeter of woodland property with interior open field.

Access: West Neck Road (south end)

Dogs are allowed on leash

Dogs not allowed at Mashomack Preserve

Remember to pick up after your dog

Park in designated areas or safely off the road

Stay on paths and trails

Be aware of ticks

Pack it in, pack it out

During hunting season please check signage for entry

Stay off private property

No bicycles or motorized vehicles on trails

No camping

Do not disturb birds, nests, trees, and plants

The preservation of land on Shelter Island is made possible by The Community Preservation Fund, the Town of Shelter Island, Suffolk County, New York State, The Nature Conservancy, Peconic Land Trust, Sylvester Manor Educational Farm and public and private contributions.

This map was produced by the Town of Shelter Island Community Preservation Fund and printed with funding from the Shelter Island Chamber of Commerce. ©2020

Town of Shelter Island

Emergency 911

Police 631-749-0600

Town Hall 631 749-0291

Thank you

shelterislandtown.us/community-preservation-board
shelterislandchamber.org